TO: Home Schooling Parents

FROM: Steve Slyman, Director of Individualized Instructional Programs

DATE: July 24, 2020

The following information is provided for your consideration in your application to provide Home School:

- Letter of Intent to Provide Home School
- Albany County School District #1 Board of Education regarding Home Schooling
- Administrative procedures for implementing Home School programs

Note that the name of a “Sequentially Progressive Curriculum” must be provided in order to approve a Home-School Educational Program.

You may also choose to have your child(ren) participate in Federally-funded programs. Programs such as Title I, Special Education (IDEA), and Carl D. Perkins Vocational Program are limited to students who are eligible for those services. Contact Scott James, Director of State & Federal Programs, at 721-4400 for additional information regarding Title I eligibility and services or the Carl D. Perkins Vocational Program. Steve Slyman, Director of Individualized Instruction, 721-4460, can provide assistance in evaluation for suspected disabilities and/or the provision of services to eligible students. Additionally parents of home schooled students are eligible to participate in staff development opportunities provided by the district. While it is too early to disseminate what the district’s staff development offerings will be at this time, please note that you can contact Barb Farley, Staff Development Coordinator, at 721-4460 to find out what is scheduled.

Please return the completed Letter of Intent to Provide Home Schooling by September 1, 2020, to the Office of Special Services, 509 S. 9th St., Laramie, WY 82070.

Respectfully,

Steve Slyman
Director of Individualized Instruction
